

Construction Institute Construction Engineering Scholarship and Student Prize

The Construction Engineering Scholarship is endowed by gifts from friends of the Construction Division (now the Construction Institute) in conjunction with its 1975 Jubilee Year. The scholarship was officially established by action of the ASCE Board of Direction in April 1978.

- I. Eligibility:
 - a. Any undergraduate freshman, sophomore, junior, or first-year senior who is a Construction Institute (CI) student member and/or ASCE National Student Member in good standing at the time of application and award.
 - b. The scholarship may be awarded only to the student who will employ it to continue their formal undergraduate education at an ABET, ACCE, or similarly-accredited educational institution.
 - c. Previous recipients of this scholarship are eligible to apply in any succeeding competition for this award provided that other requirements of eligibility are satisfied.

- II. Application:
 - a. Applications are to be submitted to the Construction Institute office for receipt by a date established by the Institute that is no later than April 1 of the year of award.
 - b. Applications must include: (1) completed application form, (2) a statement by the applicant of why they wish to enter the construction industry, special financial needs, as well as long-term goals and plans, (3) detailed annual budget of expenses and incomes, (4) minimum of two letters of recommendation from members of the faculty, (5) official transcript, and (6) one-page resume highlighting honors, extra-curricular activities, professional activities, and work experience.

- III. Selection:
 - a. One or more applicants may be selected each year to receive an award.
 - b. Selection is made by a review committee designated by the Construction Institute.
 - c. Selection is based on the applicant's justification of award, educational plan, academic performance and standing, potential for development, leadership capacity, and financial need.

- IV. Awards:
 - a. The sum of each scholarship to be awarded will be determined by the review committee based upon available funds.
 - b. Recipients will be notified of their selection in June by the Construction Institute.
 - c. The awards will be deposited to the awardee's account with the financial aid office of the educational institution designated in his/her application. Scholarship funds must be used for tuition expenses.
